BOOK CHANGING DAY

- Book changing days are on the parent notice board.
- This is also shown on the first page of your child's reading log.
- On this day, children's reading books will be changed weekly.
- Children will receive 2 coloured banded books and 1 free choice book.
- Phonic books will start 25th September.
- Please check your child's book bag everyday as there may be letters and other important information.

PE

- PE and Music will take place Monday morning.
- Please bring children to school in PE kits – they will stay in PE kit for the day.
- PE T-shirts and be purchased through SCOPAY.

DAILY PHONICS

- Daily Phonics will start with Phase 1.
- We use a Blossom Federation Phonics programme
- Phonics sessions will be within class until children are assessed and placed into smaller working groups.

DSR

- Starts Autumn 2
- 9.00-9.20am in Duckling class
- Reading with small group of children
- We will be running training sessions.
- Support needed!!!

OUTDOOR PLAY

- Children will have the opportunity to free flow outside every day.
- There will be a mix of different activities outside including gross motor toys, creative, maths and literacy resources, construction area, sand pit and a reading area.
- Please label all clothes clearly and clothing should be weather appropriate.

BASELINE

- We will be completing the statutory baseline over the next few weeks.
- Your child will work with a class teacher to complete the assessment.
- The assessment is made up of different activities including games, counting and answering word based questions.
- Data from this assessment will go to the DfE and act as an On-Entry Data for when children start school.

TRIPS

- Children will be offered opportunities for trips throughout the year.
- Trips will start locally starting with Daubeney Fields, Local Church and the library.
- We have a trip booked in for Autumn 2 for a story telling exhibition.

Please scan this link if you would like to be a parent volunteer for our school trips!
